

Did you know?

- ★ You can download eBooks and audiobooks for free. There are tons of titles regularly updated. Check out the Army Audio eBook Library and NetLibrary to search for titles.
- ★ My LibraryDV offers online streaming videos that you can check out virtually and watch.
- ★ Librarians can provide reference help 24 hours a day!
- ★ You can request paperback books and Playaways for your unit while deployed.
- ★ Study guides and practice tests are available online to keep up with your studies.
- ★ The libraries will send books to you in the mail. If there is something you want or need to read, just ask!
- ★ You can request from any participating library, regardless of your home library.
- ★ Full-text research databases and eJournals are a click away.

For more information

<http://www.library.eur.army.mil>

Go to “Soldiers” or “Services > Deployed”

Library Services for deployed Soldiers

Take the library with you no matter where you go!

Web site: <http://www.library.eur.army.mil> e-mail: regional.library@eur.army.mil

My Account

Activating your My Account will give you access to tons of online features that will make your life easier.

- Place your own requests
- Renew your own items
- Keep track of checked out items

To start your My Account:

1. Go to the web catalog.
2. Click the “get a PIN” link.
3. In the Web Login field, enter the e-mail address registered with the library. It must be unique. If you have the same e-mail address listed on more than one account (for example john.doe@us.army.mil on John Doe and Jane Doe,) the e-mail cannot be used as the login.
4. Click submit to generate an e-mail to the e-mail address on record. The system takes 10-30 seconds on average to send this e-mail.
5. Click on the e-mailed link to visit a Web page that will allow you to set your PIN. The PIN must be at least 4 numbers long and will not accept letters or special characters.

Request Materials Downrange

You must be registered at your post library. If you are not yet registered, please contact your post library. Once registered, contact the library to have your account set up as deployed, then follow the instructions below:

1. Activate your My Account on the Army Europe Libraries Web catalog at <http://www.library.eur.army.mil>
2. Log into your My Account and ensure your deployed mailing address is filled in.
3. Perform a search for the item you want. You can search either the Army Europe Libraries catalog or the Union Catalog at <http://myarmylibrary.fmwr.net/>
4. Once you find an item you would like to borrow, click “deployed request” if in the Army Europe Libraries catalog or “request” if in the Union Catalog.
5. Select the region you registered with from the drop down and click “submit this information”
6. Enter your name as it appears on your CAC card and enter your e-mail address
7. Select a copy if asked, and submit your request. You should get a confirmation message that includes lending library information.

Items will be mailed to you. The check-out period is extended to allow sufficient time for you to enjoy your item. When finished, mail the item back using the provided mailing label.

eVideo Downloads

You can now download from our electronic video collection. The collection includes television series, foreign films, horror, comedy, documentaries, and more.

In order to use the collection, you only need a Library Account and Windows Media Player (a security update is required).

You can access the eVideo collection from the Downloadable Content Web page on the Army Europe Libraries Web site.

eAudio/eBook Downloads

Thousands of titles are available for download via NetLibrary and the Army Audio eBook Library. MP3, WMA, PFD, or EPUB formats are available. New titles are added all the time, so be it the newest best-seller or a classic title, there is sure to be something for everyone.

You can access NetLibrary and the Army Audio eBook Library from the Downloadable Content page on the Library Web site.

Database Access

Army Europe Libraries databases are accessible from anywhere in the world! Just log in using your My Account info. Doing research has never been easier!